King of Prussia, Pa. – The Main Line’s best summer camps, Julian Krinsky Camps & Programs, and the most prestigious dance school, The Rock School West, are excited to bring dance and residential life together. Mixing the strengths of both organizations is the perfect recipe for summer fun. Who else could combine ballet, hip-hop, theater dance, jazz, tap, friends, trips, and evening activities into one unforgettable summer experience?

Dance classes are held at Rock West and taught by a distinguished faculty of instructors and choreographers. Classes are structured to give students the opportunity to work in a relaxed atmosphere and receive individual attention. Each session culminates in an exciting studio performance of original choreography created especially for the students.

Residential students, ages 10–15, enjoy campus life at Cabrini College with Julian Krinsky’s experienced staff. Visits to Philadelphia attractions and regional destinations complete the evening and weekend schedule.

About Julian Krinsky Camps & Programs

For 30 years, JKCP has been dedicated to providing stimulating and enriching experiences for children and teens through diverse, innovative programs in sports, arts, academics and more. Students from over 35 states and 30 countries attend the programs located at the University of Pennsylvania, Bryn Mawr, Cabrini and Haverford Colleges, and the Shipley School.

About the Rock School

Since its establishment in 1963, The Rock School for Dance Education has been a premiere pre-professional classical ballet training institution. The School opened its suburban branch school, The Rock School West, to expand its ballet curriculum to include jazz, tap, hip-hop, theatre dance, early dance and more. The Rock School has placed dancers in Broadway shows, movies, television and major companies worldwide.
